

ASIAN AGRIBUSINESS
Recruitment · Training · Development

Recruitment Consultant

Asian Agribusiness Recruitment Training & Development (AARTD) is Asian's only Agribusiness focused Executive search firm.

Our business is growing in both China and across Asia so we're looking for talented Recruitment Consultants to join our team.

The successful applicant will work within a great team and have plenty of opportunity to develop their career and grow with our company.

AARTD provides job training plus regular senior mentoring sessions with industry experts.

Required Skills:

- Human Resources, Animal nutrition, Veterinary Medicine, Animal Science, economics degree. Agribusiness education and experience is a benefit not mandatory.
- At least 5 years working experience in industries such as Human Resources (Recruitment), Agribusiness, Science or Sales (must have 2+ years of experience for Sales)
- Ability to prepare, understand and present high quality reports.
- Excellent analytical and communication skills (particularly via email and phone).
- Enjoys the challenge of working in the fast growing agricultural and livestock industry
- Good written and spoken English and Chinese.
- Able to work independently and a team player, you will work directly with the Managing Director at times and external Clients.
- Self-motivated, organized and accurate.
- Good time manager and work effectively under pressure.
- Enjoys accountability and confident in taking responsibility for the work.
- Effective communicator - Friendly, polite and persuasive.
- Candidate will have a positive attitude, be determined to success and enjoys new challenges.

Job Details:

- Cold calling companies to generate new business and potential candidates to increase our pool of potential applicants.
- Building and maintain good relationships with employers and candidates.
- Receive, review and understand all aspects of employer briefs.
- Screen and shortlist candidates for employers to interview (includes background checking, interviewing & testing).
- Meeting targets for jobs filled and candidates placed.
- Maintain our database to be up to date with all your candidate and job records.
- Attend training, education and development programs to assist in improved performance, personal growth and advancement.
- Work effectively with Management and other staffs, including regular reports and updates.
- Attend Exhibitions and Industry events to source new Candidates & Clients.
- Present a professional company image at all times.

Contact with

Ms. Kelly Wang

+86 10 6591 9042 Ext 203

kelly@boddingtonconsulting.com