

Positions: social policy analyst job summary

China Policy is a globally-recognised policy analysis and strategic advisory firm headquartered in Beijing. We build client knowledge and provide tools to map, analyse and respond to China's changing domestic and market environments.

We currently have a position available for a social policy analyst. As part of a team, analysts drive the analytical base of a portfolio, tracking and mapping policy developments and commentary, drafting in clear English, and preparing reports. Staff in the social policy portfolios work closely with our other economic and horizontal portfolios. Issues on the social policy agenda include: healthcare, aged care, pharmaceuticals, education, urbanisation, housing, land reform and poverty alleviation.

duties analyst/lead analyst

- keep abreast of domestic debates; signal events; trends; and key actors and agencies
- analyse and assess policy movement across the sector
- summarise and translate policy-relevant articles from Chinese to English
- draft policy analysis
- develop people and agency profiles
- contribute, where appropriate, to other China Policy analysis tasks
- assist research managers with portfolio tasks knowledge and skills analyst/lead analyst

- outstanding academic achievement at least MA level
- understanding of China's policy environment
- native-level Chinese
- professional standard English (with strong writing skills)
- eye for detail and clear communicator
- ability to deliver work to tight deadlines
- flexible and able to take initiative, willingness to work overtime

Please apply via our official website <http://policycn.com/careers/> where you will find an application exercise.